CERTIFICATE OF ANALYSIS.

"I hereby certify that I have submitted to an exhaustive Chemical Analysis a sample of Old Scotch Whisky received from Mr. Robert Brown, Glasgow, and from the results obtained I can testify with confidence to its great purity of composition and high class character.

"I find it to be remarkably free from admixture with Fusel Oil, and all other objectionable contamination, a sufficient proof as to its high degree of maturity and dietetic value.

"I can recommend this blend of Whisky as being a thoroughly wholesome, safe, and reliable spirit.

NOW READY.

THE CHRONICLE AND DIRECTORY FOR CHINA, JAPAN, STRAITS, &c., &c., FOR 1894;

With which is incorporated THE CHINA DIRECTORY.

This is the THIRTY-SECOND ANNUAL ISSUE.

and will be found, as usual, to show an advance on preceding years both in fulness and accuracy of information.

The DIRECTORY covers the whole of the ports and cities of the Far East, from Penang to Vladivostock, in which Europeans reside.

Not only is the Directory as full and complete in each case as it can be made, but each Colony, Port, or Settlement is prefaced by a DESCRIPTION, carefully revised each year, some of which will serve as accurate GUIDES for the Tourist, giving every detail in connection with the places, their History, Topography, &c., &c.

The information afforded in these Descriptions alone would suffice to fill an ordinary volume, consisting of over EIGHTY highly interesting articles, packed with facts concisely set out, and containing statistics of the TRADE of each Country and Port.

The work contains Directories and Descriptions of DEATH.

At his residence, Bangkok, on the 16th January, FIDELIS ANTONIO DA COSTA. (Khoon Sawok Wanisuth), Chief Outdoor Inspector, H.M.S. Customs, aged 28 years.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, JANUARY 31ST, 1894.

MANY things appear to be making, gradually it is true but surely, towards a due appreciation by China of her relations vis-à-vis her European neighbours. The conquest and annexation of Annam and Tonkin by France, that Power's recent aggressive action towards Siam, the scarcely veiled designs on Corea by Russia a few years ago, her attempts to retain possession of Kuldja, and, lastly, the rapid and energetic prosecution of that great enterprise the Trans-Siberian Railway, have combined to open Chinese eyes, and are leading the Peking Government to compare the policy, actions, and interests of her other neighbour, British India, with these before-mentioned restless efforts. No doubt the bulk of Chinese officials are too much engrossed in the pursuit of the dollar to give very serious attention to purely outside affairs; they would continue blindly relying on the supposed invincibility of Chinese resources until Peking fell into the hands of the enemy; but there is, fortunately for China, a percentage of the mandarins who take some interest in the world beyond Cathay, and are not so blinded by vanity as to be unable to recognise the strength of some of the "outer barbarians." The views of these enlightened Chinese are pretty accurately reflected in the article, recently reproduced in our columns from the Shen-pao, on the Trans-Siberian Railway now in course of construction. "Russia," says the Shen-pao, "touches China at Hunt'sun (opposite to "Vladivostock), which becomes a door for "her entrance into this Empire; if the "former were to build a railway from St. "Petersburg right down to Hunt'sun, then "farewell to any future peaceful days to "China's frontiers!" This is sufficiently plain and outspoken; the writer has no confidence in Russia's pacific intentions, and scouts the idea that the railway is being constructed for commercial purposes. Referring to this point, he says:—"When "we consider that a vast portion of the "country between European Russia and "Siberia is a waste, and but sparsely in-"habited, one would naturally assume that "there cannot possibly, under the circum-"stances, be much commerce along this "route, as compared with other more favour-"ed ones. It might therefore be pertinently "asked, what are the advantages, from a "commercial point of view, that Russia "might reasonably expect by being so ener-"getic in trying to complete this line of "railway? After turning over the question "in our mind, pro and con, we can find no "reasonable answer to it commercially speak-"ing; hence we cannot but feel compelled to "draw conclusions from this unusual energy "of Russia which must be unfavourable to "China."

Now it may be possible that Russia has a reply ready to meet this reasoning. She may urge that although the greater portion of the country through which the Trans-Siberian Railway will pass is about the most thinly peopled and inhospitable portion of the world's surface that can be cultivated, yet there is no reason why it should always remain so; that there is good land, fine timber, and rich mineral resources in Siberia which only need a settled and industrious population to develop, and that its influx will follow on the completion of the railway. She may point to the Canadian Pacific Railway as an instance of how colonisation and commerce have followed the laying down of the iron road, and she may cite the proposed and commenced Trans-Continental Railway in Australia as a similar project, crossing the deserts to unite ports at opposite extremities of the country. And on the face of them these are strong and perfectly admissible arguments. Like conditions appear to prevail, and similar developments might be expected—if the populations were similar and the policies of the Government not diverse. But the Chinese are an observant people, particularly where trade is concerned. They would immediately reply that though some development might be expected through a railway being constructed across Siberia it would be very different from that resulting from a line laid in a country settled by the pushing, restless, and commercial Anglo-Saxon race. The Russians are not a commercial nor yet even a colonising people, and trade would be a plant of slow growth—across Siberia. The colonising would have to be done by means of the military posts and there would be new convict settlements along the line, but of free and voluntary emigrants there would be very few indeed. When therefore it is claimed that the Trans-Siberian Railway will be "a boon to commerce," the Shen-pao, and the Chinese generally, regard the claim as a doubtful justification for the enterprise and persist in seeing in it only a new instrument for promoting aggressive designs. And it would be mere affectation for China to pretend to view this undertaking in any other light. It would be childish to suppose the Russian Government would go to such an enormous expense as this great line will entail merely to provide a fillip to Russian commerce or even to encourage settlement in Siberia. European Russia is not over populated, and the people are not seeking outlets for their energies. Nor are the Russian Government went to consider, to any great extent, the interests of posterity. The exchequer is too impoverished for indulgence in schemes for the benefit of the next generation, and military aggrandisement rather than commercial development occupies the attention of the Russian Administrators. The Chinese Government have therefore good cause for anxiety when they see means of direct communication between Eastern Siberia and European Russia in course of being established, inasmuchas the completion of this railway must mean the consolidation of Russian power in the Pacific and the establishment on the frontiers of China of a formidable army, thoroughly disciplined and equipped, ready at any moment to invade Manchuria and invest Peking. It only remains for the Chinese Government to meet this move by a counter move. The railway from Newchwang to Kirin, as well as the large railway system projected some years ago, should be pushed on with all possible speed, strong military posts should be established along the frontier, and preparations made to enable the Chinese Commander-in-Chief to mobilise a large and effective army at any given point on the northern frontier at short notice. If China is caught napping, it will prove the doom of the Ta-tsing dynasty and might even prove the dissolution of the Empire. The warning given by the Shen-pao has not been uttered a moment too soon, and cannot be disregarded by the Peking Government.

The Hon. J. H. Stewart Lockhart, Registrar-General, and Mrs. Stewart Lockhart arrived by the Empress of India yesterday.

The U. S. S. Marion broke her homeward bound pennant at Yokohama on the 21st inst., orders having been received for her return home. She was expected to leave in three weeks' time. The U. S. S. Lancaster was to leave for home on the 22nd.

A special sessions of the Justices was held yesterday morning at the Magistracy for the purpose of considering an application from B. F. Taylor for the transfer of his publican's licence for the Western Hotel, 90 and 92 Queen's Road West, to Israel Weinberg. Commander W. C. H. Hastings presided and the only other Justices present were Mr. A. J. May and Mr Geo. Harspool (Deputy Captain Superintendent of Police). There being no objections the application was granted, without any discussion. Mr. Grist (of Mr. C. D. Wilkinson's office) appeared for the applicant.

The troopship Himalaya, which arrived here yesterday, brought the following for the garrison:—Royal Artillery—Lieuts. Lamberde, Corrie, and Paul, Second-Lieutenant Sweetenham, and 54 men, 4 women and 10 children. Royal Engineers—Capt. Wrottesley, Lieuts. Kelsall and Hitchins, Mr. Batchelor, 63 men, 7 women and 15 children, Mrs. Wrottesley, Mrs. Hitchins and 5 children, Mrs. Batchelor and 1 child. Shropshire Light Infantry—Major Collett, Lieut. Radcliffe, 229 men and 1 woman. Ordnance Store Department—Major Clark. Army Service Corps—Mr. Bremner. Army Medical Staff—Captain Smith. Medical Staff Corps—12 men, 1 woman and 1 child. Army Pay Department—1 woman and 2 children. Corps of Armourers—1 man and 1 woman.

The annual general meeting of the Shanghai Race Club was held on the 25th inst. at the Shanghai Club, Mr. Alex. McLeod presided and there was a numerous attendance. Before the transaction of the ordinary business a resolution was adopted expressing great regret at the death of Mr. John Macgregor, and sympathy with his relatives. The accounts for the year were adopted, the Chairman stating that the Stewards looked forward at the end of the present year to a balance in hand of some Tls. 7,000. A proposal to alter the rules of the Leger to weight for inches with penalties was rejected, but a suggestion to the incoming Stewards to impose a small admission fee on the off-day was favourably received by the Stewards, who said the outgoing Stewards were unanimously in favour of the proposal. In recognition of his services as Clerk of the Course, Mr. Gore-Booth was elected an honorary member of the Club, and the ballot for Stewards resulted in Messrs. A. McLeod, H. J. H. Tripp, J. S. Fearon, C. J. Dudgeon, J. A. Pond, G. D. Boning, and F. J. Maitland being elected.

The steamer Catherine Apear, from Calcutta, left Singapore for this port yesterday at 1.30 p.m.

Arrangements for the Masonic Ball to be held on the 26th proximo are now in active progress, and the function bids fair to be one of the most successful and brilliant gatherings ever held in the colony.

The Band of the 1st Shropshire Light Infantry will play the following programme on the Barrack Square, to-night, commencing at 8 p.m.:—

Polka	"Fun of the Fair"	Algrotto.
Quadrille	"Monte Carlo"	Williams.
Valse	"With the Stream"	Marzials.
Schottische	"Hilda"	Smith.
Lancers	"Talk o' the night"	Williams.
Valse	"Sweet Briar"	Lowthian.
Quadrille	"Olympia"	Williams.
Valse	"Insamnata"	Faro.

The following were six of the best scores at last Saturday's Volunteer spoon competition. Sergeant Hayward having withdrawn from the competition the spoons were passed on to Sergeant Brown and Gunner Ramsay:—

	Score.	Points.
Sergeant Hayward	80	0
Sergeant Brown	78	6
Gunner Ramsay	72	4
Lt. Sergeant-Major Duncan	69	0
Sergeant Wylie	56	6
Gunner Fenton	54	8

A meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the Victoria Hotel, Mr. G. A. Caldwell presiding, for the purpose of considering the arrangements to be made for the annual athletic sports. Mr. A. Denison presented the report and statement of accounts, which showed a balance in hand of over $300. It was decided that the meeting should be held on Saturday, March 10th, at the Happy Valley. A committee of management was appointed, consisting principally of the old members. Lieut. Strick taking the place of Lieut Maynell, who will be absent. It was resolved that the programme should contain a ½ mile and mile race for the soldiers instead of the usual ½ mile event, and that two bicycle races should be included, one a handicap and the other scratch. Mr. A. Denison was re-elected secretary, and Mr. Babington treasurer. The hope was expressed that a C.M.G. challenge cup would be offered by the commanders of that order in the colony at the forthcoming meeting.

The Bangkok Times of the 20th inst. says:—Phra Yot, the officer who was in charge of the Siamese troops at Khong Chek when Inspector Grosgurin was killed there, reached Bangkok six days ago; and Luang Warong, who took part in the affair at Toong Chiang Kam, arrived here four days previously. Both, with their parties, are to be tried according to the terms of the convention. After this the Siamese Government has, as far as possible, faithfully executed all the conditions, however harsh, which have been imposed upon this country and successively exacted by the Western Power. The left bank of the Mekong is entirely and peacefully evacuated; no armed forces are maintained in the provinces of Battambong and Siem Reap, and within 25 kilometres of the right bank of the Mekong. The indemnity of 3,000,000 fes. has been paid, and when these trials have taken place every possible objection to the evacuation of Chantaboon will have been removed and it may then be reasonably hoped that Siamese territory, reduced to its proper proportions, will be free from foreign occupation.

In view of the recent discussion on the subject of Chinese emigration to Brazil the following from the Japan Mail, referring to the condition of Japanese labourers in another South American Republic, is interesting:—"We read in the Nippon that 150 Japanese labourers now in Guatemala have fallen into a state of great distress. A letter sent by one of them to a Japanese in Honolulu says that as the climate of Guatemala resembles that of Hawaii, and as the work to be done there on the coffee plantations is comparatively easy, the Japanese labourers did not anticipate any special hardships. But their treatment by their employers has gradually become more and more brutal, and being totally ignorant of Spanish, which is the language used there, they find themselves in a very evil plight. The letter adds that according to their original contract they were to receive ten dollars a month in the currency of either Guatemala or America, but since the latter is more than twice as valuable as the former, their salary has naturally been paid in the cheaper currency, while on the other hand the price of commodities is said to be three times as high as in Hawaii. Rendered desperate by suffering, twenty-one of the Japanese labourers fled from the plantation where they were employed, but ten were captured and thrown into prison, where one of them died. The letter concludes with a piteous prayer for aid, but the statements which we have quoted seem inherently so improbable that our readers will be disposed to withhold credence."

The Bangkok Times gives the following account of an explosion which occurred on the Downsonges on the 15th inst.:—"On Monday evening at about 8.30 an explosion of a peculiar nature occurred on the Scottish Oriental steamer Downsonges, lying at Messrs. Windsor & Co.'s rice mill. Capt. Unsworth, who, with his wife, had only just finished dining in the saloon, was the first on the scene, being under the impression that the explosion was the result of Chinese fireworks, but on reaching the waist of the vessel found that it had emanated from his own chart-room, which, as the smoke cleared away, presented a complete wreck. He explains that there were three distinct explosions, followed by three lesser reports, all of which, as it subsequently proved, were caused by the ignition of a stock of rockets and gunpowder stored in the chart-room locker. By some fortunate dispensation of Providence there was no one in the vicinity of the explosion at the time. The after part of the chart room was shivered into match-wood, sextants, charts, and books being scattered in all directions. The partition separating the adjoining wheel-house was torn away, carrying with it the lubricator and a wheel of the steam steering apparatus. Overhead the deck of the bridge was shattered into splinters, the standard compass being injured almost beyond repair, while immediately below the locker which held the explosives a large hole had been blown through the iron deck into the ship's galley underneath, wrecking the adjoining messroom to such an extent that it is fortunate no one was there at the time. When the explosion occurred pieces of the débris were hurled far into the adjacent wharf, where the lamps in several private houses were extinguished by the shock. As to the cause of the accident nothing is known. The chart room had been locked up at 4 p.m., no one having had access to it after that hour, while the stove in the ship's galley immediately underneath the combustibles was not lighted at the time, and was, besides, separated from the locker by a deck composed partly of iron one eighth of an inch in thickness." An enquiry into the circumstances was held before Mr. French at H.B.M. Consulate, and from the evidence it appeared that the accident was due to the iron deck immediately below the chart-room locker, where the explosives were kept, being eaten away by the continually corroding action of the salt water, and that the heat, which had charred right through the thick planking intervening, had been transmitted from a stove in the ship's galley, the flue of which ran parallel with the deck. His Honour gave a decision to this effect.

PROTECTION OF AFGHANISTAN.

LONDON, 29th January.

It is understood that the Indian Government is practically committed to a policy for the defence of Afghanistan from aggressions from the North, and while the Ameer abides by this agreement, the Indian Government is bound to maintain the integrity of Afghanistan.

LORD SALISBURY'S ADVICE TO THE UNIONIST PEERS.

At a conference of Unionist Peers, Lord Salisbury's advice, to adhere to the previous decision arrived at with regard to the Employers' Liability Bill, and to amend the Parish Councils Bill, was approved of.

DISCUSSION OVER THE UNITED STATES TARIFF BILL.

There appears to be some danger that the American Tariff Bill will be sent back to the Committee, many Democrats resenting some of the clauses, and also opposing the suggested Income Tax.

SAILING NOTES.

I see the Corinthians intend celebrating the Chinese New Year by a three days' sailing race for two prizes presented by the Garrison. It is rather a pity, for the sake of sport, that a little more care was not taken in the handicapping, which appears to have been done by taking the boats' names out of one bag and the starts out of another. As a result, for instance, the Cam, a second class boat, is put on a level with the Ladybird, a first class boat, which in a scratch race would have to allow her 3 min. 16 sec. owing to difference of rating, and has even to give the scratch boat 16 seconds allowing for time for difference of rating.

Again, the Sha, which received at the beginning of this season 10 minutes from the Kitten, which time she has not been able to reduce, as she would have been had it been too much, by the present system of handicapping has to allow the Kitten 4 minutes, which is simply absurd. The Kitten is, with the exception of perhaps the Cam, undoubtedly the best boat of the second class, and why she should receive time from such boats as the Pearl and the Sha I cannot imagine, especially as the prizes are being given partly by her owners.

The Elfin is also very liberally dealt with, as in one of the two Challenges she finished well ahead of the whole second class fleet. The Sea Breeze, too, although it is true she has only one little mark to her name, has been well up in the two races she sailed in and gets very liberal treatment from the handicappers. I should have placed Kitten on the same mark as Pearl, and Elfin and Sea Breeze with Sha. The other handicaps do not appear to be far out, but the difference between the first and second classes is not nearly enough, as I notice by the reports that with the exception of the Cam in one race, no second class boat ever came in after taking off the 5 minutes' start, within 18 minutes of the leading first class boat.

SAIGON.

[FROM A CORRESPONDENT.]

20th January.

The temperature for the past month or two has been all that could be desired, the cool breeze prevailing over night.

The preliminary survey for the new Trans-Laotian Railway is already commenced and it is said M. de Lanessan has given instructions to push it forward with all possible rapidity.

The date of M. de Lanessan's contemplated departure on leave is as yet uncertain as the new Ministry, having before them H.E.'s past success in the administration of French Indo-China, is urging him to remain for a few months longer to settle different matters regarding the internal administration of these countries.

The quantity of rice exported during last year exceeded a million of piculs and is greatly in excess of the last five or six years' export.

Messrs. Schoele & Co., of your place, have a pepper plantation in the neighbourhood of Binhhoa, close on the Mois frontier, on which over $20,000 have been expended, and now, just when they were expecting to see their efforts crowned with success, the Administration of Binhhoa has deprived them of their coolies, who are ordered to construct new strategic roads. Messrs. Schoele & Co.'s representative will bring the matter before H.E. the Lieutenant-Governor, from whom prompt remedy is expected, as delay will ruin the entire crop.

THE CANADIAN MAIL.

The C. P. steamer Empress of India, with the Canadian mail of the 8th inst., arrived yesterday. The following telegrams are taken from the Vancouver News-Advertiser:—

OPENING OF THE MANCHESTER SHIP CANAL.

MANCHESTER, 1st January.

The popular enthusiasm over the opening of the Manchester Ship Canal surprised even the most sanguine supporters of the work. The people were astir early and converged in crowds towards the Salford docks, those possessing tickets taking reserved places between the Trafford Dock and Barton Bridge, a stretch of 2 miles. The bunting flying everywhere, the constant movement of the spectators, and the hauling of the steamers on which the Manchester and Salford officials embarked for Latchford, made a scene of the greatest animation.

The carrying out of the official programme began at 9.30 a.m., when the steamer Norseman, conveying the directors and chief officials of the Canal, started for Manchester, amid enthusiastic cheering. The steamer Snowdrop, which had twice previously navigated the entire waterway, followed the Norseman, carrying the municipal council bran d other officials of Manchester. Next was the steamer Great Britain, conveying the Salford municipal councillors and their friends. Following them came vessels chartered respectively by the Warrington municipal councillors, the Bridgewater Canal officials, the Manchester Art Club, the Manchester Conservative Club, the Oldham Cotton Buying Company. Then came the Manchester Law Society, Rylands & Sons's and Peter Walker & Sons', the Steamship Company's tender Shrimatisher, carrying the families of municipal councillors of Manchester, followed by six pleasure boats belonging to the Liverpool Tug Company and the Ship Canal Company. White Star tender Magnetic, and a long procession of trading vessels, cargo boats and barges, most of which were docked. Among the trading vessels docked were the Sophie Wilhelmina with a cargo of deals, the Lamprey with a general cargo, the Fairway with a saccharine cargo, and the Grace Gibson with dye wood. Many other vessels from various ports were docked before dark. As the procession advanced the enthusiasm increased. Cheers, congratulations and wishes for the prosperity of the Canal were continually exchanged between the ships and the shore. The death of the projector of the Canal, Mr. Daniel Adamson, was frequently lamented and general regrets were expressed that he had not lived to share the triumph. The enthusiasm was tremendous at the Barton locks, where Engineer Williams' steel aqueduct, carrying the Bridgewater Canal over the waterway, was greatly admired. When the procession reached the Mode wheel locks the steamer Snowdrop took the lead. Soon afterward the Salford docks, with nearly 5 miles of quays, were reached. The steamer Norseman passed the Trafford Wharf at 1 o'clock and was safely berthed in a few minutes. The people aboard the various chartered steamers disembarked subsequently amid congratulations and cheers. The trading vessels were berthed as speedily as possible and were at once boarded by the Customs officers. The work of unloading was then begun, dockers from Liverpool, Glasgow, Newcastle, and other ports having been already engaged.

The route of the procession was about 14 miles long. Probably 70,000 persons visited some parts of the Canal during the day. There was no hitch whatever in carrying out the day's programme. The facts that the crowds everywhere were amenable to police directions and that many barriers had been erected along the line of the Canal prevented accidents. Engineer Roubottom of the Norseman, while attempting to board the steamer in the Latchford l ck on the night of December 30th, missed his footing and fell into the water and was drowned.

THE BRITISH SQUADRON AT RIO DE JANEIRO.

LONDON, 29th December.

In the House of Commons to-day Sir Edward Grey, the Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign Office, stated that the British squadron at Rio Janeiro had recently been strengthened by the substitution of the cruiser Barrosa for the sloop-of-war Basilisk, and the sloop-of-war Racer for the gun-boat Magpie. Besides these, the cruiser Sirius and the sloop-of-war Beagle were included in the squadron, which the Government thought it was needless to further reinforce.

DISTRESS IN LONDON.

LONDON, 30th December.

The distress prevalent among the poor of London is shown by the workhouse returns for the holidays. On Christmas Day 108,000 names were on the relief roll. This number exceeded the record of Christmas, 1892, by more than 10,000.

LABOUCHERE AND GLADSTONE.

LONDON, 30th December.

Mr. Henry Labouchere pursues without cessation his campaign against the Government's plan of continuing the £10,000 to the Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha in his capacity as Duke of Edinburgh. He has canvassed the Radical members of the House of Commons to get signatures to his protest against the grant. This protest will be presented to Mr. Gladstone. Mr. Labouchere's hostility to Mr. Gladstone is becoming more evident daily. He has not forgiven the Premier for excluding him from office. Both in the lobby and press he hints at the advisability of Mr. Gladstone's retiring from public life. His suggestions of this sort, however, have found no echo anywhere in the Government ranks. On the contrary they are resented generally. Although Mr. Gladstone is failing physically the Liberals feel more keenly than ever that they have nobody to take his place and they dread the disorganisation which would follow his disappearance from political life.

THE NAVAL PROGRAMME.

LONDON, 30th December.

The Admiralty plan for enlarging the navy is still in embryo. All that is known positively is that no extraordinary grant will be demanded at once, as if the country were on the brink of war. The Admiralty will meet the views and ease the task of the Chancellor of the Exchequer by allocating the expenditures over a number of years. A fixed annual sum is to cover the armaments and equipments of all kinds, but the cost of the ships is to appear in the Budget only after they shall have been armed and made ready for service.

The Army and Navy Gazette suggests a permanent construction committee consisting of three admirals, three commanders, and three captains, with a chief constructor and a director of naval ordnance as advisory members. The Committee would report annually to Parliament on the progress of home and foreign naval construction. The suggestion is said to emanate from the Admiralty. Sir E. J. Reed, M.P., who speaks with authority on naval matters, said to-day in an interview on the experience of the warship Resolution in a storm in the Bay of Biscay: "We need not apprehend any special perils from battleships of the Resolution type. The Resolution was handled badly. She is not unseaworthy and there is nothing risky about her construction."

LONDON, 6th January.

The Daily News says this morning: "The Admiralty have made ample provisions to fully maintain the strength of the navy and keep the dockyards employed, including four first-class warships, similar to the Majestic and the Magnificent, each costing about £1,000,000 and roughly, of 15,000 horse power and large coal capacity. These warships will be arranged to enable them to keep the sea longer than any warship now afloat. It is estimated that they will be completed in three years. Four gunboats of a new type, to be known as the Linnet class, and similar to the Torch and the Albert, are building at Sheerness. Instead of composite hulls they will have steel sheathed with wood and copper. They will be of 960 tons and will be called station gunboats. Their speed will be 13 knots and each will cost £60,000. In addition to the 20 torpedo-destroyers already projected 12 others of the same type with a guaranteed speed of 27 knots and an average cost of £32,000 have been arranged for.

MRS. MAYBRICK.

LONDON, 30th December.

The recent revival of the agitation for a new trial of Mrs. Maybrick, confined in Woking Prison, because convicted of having poisoned her husband, has ended in a fizzle. The Home Office denies that it has received the important new evidence which Mrs. Maybrick's friends were said to have produced. Mrs. Maybrick is now employed in the kitchen of Woking Prison when she is not in the hospital. She will have no chance of being released until after serving the tenth year of her term. Her mother's expectation that she will be liberated soon is a mistake. If the Government could release the woman without exciting press comment, it might be done earlier, but unfortunately for Mrs. Maybrick, her friends and the press will not let her case be forgotten.

MRS. OSBORNE.

LONDON, 30th December.

Mrs. Ethel Osborne, the central figure in the great pearl case, is living in seclusion in the Welsh village to which she went after leaving prison to give birth to her child. Mrs Major Hargreaves, who lost the jewels stolen by Mrs. Osborne, has renewed her friendship with the woman whom she virtually sent to prison.

WELCOMING THE NEW YEAR.

LONDON, 1st January.

The usual crowd gathered outside St. Paul's Cathedral between one and two o'clock this morning to welcome the New Year. Most of the crowd were well dressed, and were bent on uproarious jollity. They gulped down whisky and shouted music hall choruses, drowning the voices of the few who tried to sing hymns, make addresses, etc. Much anxiety was caused early in the celebration by the avowed intention of the leaders of the unemployed to bring a mob up the hill, seize the front steps, and sing the "Starving Poor of Old England" The police were drawn up in force at the foot of the steps, and about 300 reserves were in the Cathedral crypt. As the new clock in the southwest tower chimed midnight, there broke loose a pandemonium of yells, whistles, cheers, "Auld Lang Syne," "Rule Britannia," the National Anthem, the Marseillaise, and a hundred other songs. In the midst of the unemployed made a rush for the steps. The crowd behind, continued singing and cheering. As the groups pushed up against the police lines, their onset seemed to be successful and the police were reported to have broken ranks. After a struggle of a few minutes, 300 reserves emerged from the Cathedral with their batons drawn. The struggle at the foot of the steps ceased almost immediately. The crowds then dispersed, continuing the choruses as the people passed down the streets homeward. There were but two arrests.

A NEW YEAR'S DAY MEETING OF PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, 1st January.

A most unusual occurrence was the meeting to-day of the House of Commons. From the time when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary, Parliament has adjourned over New Year's Day, until to-day, when instead of enjoying a holiday, the House of Commons was hard at work attempting to clear away some of the great mass of legislative business.

THE "RESOLUTION."

LONDON, 1st January.

The matter of the war-ship Resolution which was damaged in a gale in the Bay of Biscay, and which is now at Devonport repairing, was again brought up in the House to-day by Messrs. Bowles and Forwood, who elicited information as to the facts of the case. Mr. Bowles asked if the Admiralty would now state the number of degrees the Resolution has rolled. He would also like to know whether she had rolled her rails under; how many feet of water was in the engine room, and if during December 19th and 20th she was kept head on to the sea—because to attempt to bear up and run back would have run the risk of capsizing.

Mr. Forwood asked what coal the Resolution had on board when she left port, and did the danger the ship was in justify her captain in returning?

Sir James Kay-Shuttleworth, the Parliamentary Secretary of the Admiralty, said that the essence of the fact as to the behaviour of the Resolution was already before the House. The Captain's report to the Admiralty was to the effect that he had to put back to Queenstown in the exercise of his discretion. The main reason for his putting back was his anxiety regarding his supply of coal. The Resolution had 767 tons of coal in her bunkers when she started on the voyage. Running at the rate of 10 knots an hour she would have consumed 250 tons in fair weather between the point at which she turned back and Gibraltar, her destination. No injury had been done to the structure of the ship. The damage she had sustained was not sufficient to render her return to Queenstown necessary, as all the repairs she required might have been made at Gibraltar. In deciding to return to Queenstown, the Captain had reasoned that if the gale continued his coal would not hold out until he got to Gibraltar, which the bayonet and at no time received orders to fire. Nearly a third of the town is now in ruins. Many families that were burned out walked the streets all last night. The whole town looks as if it had suffered from a bombardment. Among the buildings destroyed were every mill and every miller's house in the place.

At Salemi, a town of 15,000 inhabitants in the same district with Campobello, fires were started by anti-tax rioters shortly before dark yesterday and half a dozen buildings were burned by 9 o'clock. Fires were set by rioters in several smaller towns also and in the early evening whole districts seemed ablaze. The troops, although provoked by the rioters repeatedly in Salemi, did not fire. Several rioters were arrested after a struggle. A private was shot in the cheek, and a captain in the stomach. At Pietra-Perzia, a town of 11,000 inhabitants, near Caltanisetta, an anti-tax mob set fire to three public buildings and tried to get at the rest, but was prevented by the troops, who had been called out to protect them. The rioters made such determined attacks on the military in their efforts to reach the buildings that eventually the order to fire was given. Five were killed and many were wounded by the first volley. The second volley, fired over the heads of the rioters, was followed quickly by the dissolution of the mob. The Town Council in Marineo near Palermo abolished the wheat octroi on Saturday, but the millers and bakers, like those of Campobello, refused to reduce their prices. The people rose yesterday and tried to destroy the town buildings, but were driven off by the troops, after several stubborn fights, in which three rioters were killed and several more were wounded. Troops continued to guard the houses of the millers and bakers and the public buildings throughout the night. The Communal councillors of Syracuse have taken steps to quiet the populace by lowering the wheat tax. The announcement of this policy yesterday morning was received with joy throughout the City, and the Governor was received with tremendous enthusiasm when he entered the theatre last evening.

The despatch from Trapani, giving details of the riots in Campobello, arrived during a Cabinet Council this morning. They were read first by Premier Crispi, who at once communicated them to his colleagues. All the Ministers pronounced the situation in Sicily to be graver than at any previous period of the anti-tax agitation. Several Ministers expressed the opinion that the Communal Councils, whose bad administration has caused the disorder, ought to be dissolved by the Government. The appeal of the Military Commander of the island to the patriotism of the people is generally considered in the Ministry, as well as among the people at large, to be proof of the desperate condition of Sicilian affairs. Several Sicilian deputies, who have great influence with the people of their districts, have started for the island, to help in the work of pacification. Premier Crispi expected until this evening to go, but the alarming reports received with the last despatches have caused him to change his plans. He will not visit Sicily for the present, as he deems his presence in Rome as indispensable.

A mass meeting of all classes in Palermo last evening appointed a deputation to report formally to the Government what reforms were most needed in Sicily, as the Government was but ill-informed by the officials representing it on the Island.

LONDON, 4th January.

The Daily News has this story from Sicily: "The residents of the village of Terrasine were burning the Octroi Bureau. Troops arrived and the Lieutenant in command ordered them to get ready to fire. A woman in the crowd ran to the Lieutenant, presented a portrait of Queen Margherita and asked him to kiss it. The other rioters knelt and shouted, 'Kill us, we are already dying of hunger.' The Lieutenant withdrew the troops and the riot ceased."

PALERMO, 4th January.

Owing to the disturbed condition of Sicily and the fears that the Fasci Dei Lavoratori, the powerful secret Socialist society, might attempt to make further trouble, a state of siege has been proclaimed throughout the island. General Morra di Lavriano, who was ordered to this city to take Signor Colnaghi's place as Prefect, has been endowed with full powers, both civil and military.

ROME, 4th January.

The proclamation of the state of siege in Sicily has made a profound impression upon the people there. It is extremely difficult to learn much to-day of the state of the island, as the heavy storm has interrupted communication with Sicily. Most of the wires are down. The decree was signed by three Ministers. It especially mentions that its provisions are intended to facilitate the disarming of the Sicilian insurgents and the dissolution of the Fasci and other Socialist or Radical associations. Several Sicilian Deputies who are still in Rome plan to leave to-morrow or Saturday for home, to use their influence in calming the anti-tax agitation.

Deputy Guiseppe di Felice, the Socialist who in the Chamber represents Catania, was arrested in Palermo this evening. He is the founder of the Fasci, and his arrest is due to his activity in that society. It is reported this evening that the presidents of several important branches of the Fasci have been arrested. The departure of troops for Sicily continues.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

BERLIN, 31st December.

The Cologne Gazette repudiates the official denials of the recent massacre of Catholics in Kroshe, Kowno, Russia, and gives details of the cruelty of the Cossacks, who speared and knouted men, women, and children in front of the church. The bodies were thrown into a lime pit. The sacred vessels and ornaments from the church were smashed and thrown into a cesspool. The officials also allowed the Cossacks to loot the houses of the Catholic inhabitants.

LONDON, 31st December.

The Central News has this despatch from Madeira: "Thousands of deaths from cholera have occurred at Teneriffe, one of the Canary Islands, since the beginning of the outbreak. At present the epidemic is subsiding rapidly. The officials have divided the Islands into quarantine districts and have vigorously enforced their sanitary measures. The streets have been washed with lime and the residents and travellers have been constantly fumigated. Trade has been paralysed as ships have avoided touching at the Island."

LONDON, 4th January.

The Duchess of Argyll died this evening. She had suffered for years from asthma and bronchitis and had failed rapidly in the last few months. She was the Duke's second wife.

She was a daughter of the Bishop of St. Albans, and when she married His Grace, in 1881, she was the widow of Colonel Augustus Henry Anson.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., 4th January.

Chief Deputy United States Marshal J. B. Waller, accompanied by Deputies Lancaster and Ware and two guards furnished by the Southern Pacific Railway Company, left here for San Francisco yesterday morning, having in charge 12 Chinamen sentenced to deportation for violation of the Exclusion Act. Twenty more Celestials were picked up at Spofford Junction, from Eagle Pass, sixteen at Deltroy, and about ten at El Paso, and sentenced to deportation. The entire party, including Chinamen, officers, and guards, numbers 65 men, and they occupy two coaches. This is the largest lot of Chinese ever sent out of Texas since the Exclusion Act went into force.

"KEATING'S LOZENGES."
"KEATING'S LOZENGES."

"A SIMPLE FACT ABOUT" KEATING'S COUGH LOZENGES. Ask throughout the world, in any country that can be named, you will find them largely sold. There is absolutely no remedy that is so speedy in giving relief, so certain to cure, and yet the most delicate can take them.

"A TERRIBLE COUGH."
"A TERRIBLE COUGH."

"94, Commercial Road, Peckham, July 14.

"Dear Sir,—I am a poor hand at expressing my feelings, but I should like to thank you. Your lozenges have done wonders in relieving my terrible cough. Since I had the operation of 'Tracheotomy' (the same as the late Emperor of Germany, or mine, like him, thank God, I am still alive) performed at St. Bartholomew's Hospital, no one could possibly have had a more violent cough; it was so bad at times that it quite exhausted me. The mucus, which was very copious and hard, has been softened, and I have been able to get rid of it without difficulty.—I am, sir, yours truly, J. HILL."

UTTERLY UNRIVALLED.
UTTERLY UNRIVALLED.

The above speaks for itself. From strict inquiry it appears that the benefit from using Keating's Cough Lozenges is understated. The operation was a specially severe one, and was performed by the specialist, Dr. H. T. Butlin, of St. Bartholomew's Hospital. Since the operation the only means of relief is the use of these Lozenges. So successful are they that one affords immediate benefit, although from the nature of the case the throat irritation is intense.

WEIGH IN GOLD.
WEIGH IN GOLD.

Under date Sept. 8th, 1891, Mr. Hill again writes: "I should long since have been dead, but for your Lozenges—they are worth their weight in gold. I will gladly see and tell anyone what a splendid cough remedy they are."

Keating's Cough Lozenges, the unrivalled remedy for COUGHS, HOARSENESS, and THROAT TROUBLES, are sold in Bottles by all Chemists. [1709
